INSTITUTIONAL DISTINCTIVENESS

The institution strives to empower today's women and uphold universal moral, social and ethical values within them with a number of visions. This is the only girls' college in the locality and serves a large hinterland. Enrolment of students from a diverse social structure including huge no. of minority students and students from low income groups of the local industrial belt, of them many are the first generation learners enrich our distinctiveness. Over the years, the college has tried to nurture, foster and carefully preserves the prime objectives. The objectives are to provide all possible mental and financial support to the students to be self reliant.

Objectives:

- Providing safety and security to all the students and other stakeholders within the campus.
- Spreading legal and social awareness among the students.
- Gender sensitization among the students.

Keeping the objectives in mind the college has initiated several measures and religiously maintains all.

The Women Cell of the institution is constantly working on gender issues. The Women Cell of our college provides necessary psychological support to students and female staffs as and when necessary.

International Women's' Day is celebrated each year and eminent women personalities from different fields of the society are invited to share their experiences, struggles, and achievements.

Regular health checkups are done by the Health Unit of the college. It includes eye checkups, examinations of blood, Thalassaemia screening (by NSS). Mental counseling are also done.

Seminars are organized to empower students' self esteem.

the institution strives to empower today's women and uphold universal moral and social values. Contributions and donations are forwarded to socially and economically backward pupils.

Students are also encouraged to participate in various activities like cultural competitions, sports, career opportunities, mental wellbeing etc. Many of our students used the NCC and NSS platform to serve the society.

Innovation and Entrepreneurship:

Our Career Counseling and Placement Cell provides the platforms to the students regarding preparation of government jobs, skill enhancement, entrepreneurship developments, training courses etc. The Entry into Service Cell of the college provides the final year/semester students the proper coaching. The institution organizes a professional beautician course in collaboration with George Telegraph School of Skills. It initiates students' skill enhancement training programme within the campus.

Our college also organized a number of programmes with 'Anudip Foundation', Naihati with the alumnae and the final semester students for a Pro-Future.

- An established Alumnae network is present in our college. Workshops and training programmes (Needle workshop in collaboration with Naihati Nari Shakti Mahila Samiti, are organized for students and alumnae interested in art and craft, painting and jewellery making etc. Regular exhibitions and incubation centre are organized for the old students, who have pursued careers in sustainable art and craft, painting and Jewellery making. This Incubation Cell also provides network opportunities for students and can provide valuable insights, industry connections and opportunities for collaboration.
- Our college is situated in Naihati, which has along endured cultural heritage. Nearby Bhatpara is an ancient seat of Sanskrit learning, with several schools called Tols. Historically Bhatpara is famous as the abode of prominent Sanskrit Pundits and as a seat of learning of ancient Hindu Shastra and Vedic texts. Our institution takes the pride of Rishi Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay the famous creator of ‘Vandemataram’ was born in Naihati, Kanthalpara and the college is also named after him. Naihati is known for its rich history, vibrant culture and strategic location on the banks of Hoogly river. The city has a fascinating past that dates back to the 16th century, when it served as a flourishing port town under the rule of various dynasties. Rishi Bankim Chandra College for Women empowered by the values and ideas of great educationist Pandit Haraprashad Shastry and Rishi Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay maintains archive since 2016 preserving rich rural heritage, sculptures and handicrafts. Department of Bengali maintains the archive with full devotion.
- There is a significant role of the college museum transferring knowledge to the students and visitors. The museum as build in collaboration with Bankim Bhaban Gabeshana Kendra and the departments of Bengali, history and Sanskrit are religiously and actively involved in this gigantic effort. It is through such commemoration of this distinctive history through consistent contemporary activities that Rishi Bankim Chandra College for Women would continue to uniquely serve its community and open new horizons of knowledge.
- Parent- teacher meetings are regularly organized by the college and by the individual departments. Parents are given the utmost priority to share their opinions and complains and grievances through the feedback. Parent feedback report is annually prepared on the responses of the respected parents and proper measures are taken by the institution and the individual departments. In the meeting held in 23-24 session many guardians show their grievances about lack of sanitation and drinking water facilities. The college authority readily solved the problem of sanitation and the existing water purifiers are periodically maintained through AMC.
- Sanitizer Preparation and distribution during COVID by Department of Chemistry: Sanitizer was prepared in the department of chemistry on 13/04/2020 during COVID under the supervision of honorable principal Dr. Lana Mukhopadhyay. The prepared sanitizer was distributed among the teaching and non teaching staffs.

Rishi Bankim Chandra College for Women excels in holistic education, prioritizing physical well being, campus safety, technological advancement, environmental sustainability and above all academic diversity. Going beyond traditional academic boundaries, the institution fosters an ideal environment that supports students ‘over all development and success. These are the evidences of our distinctiveness in providing quality education and practiced for “Capacity Building of Women for Sustainable Development’.
